Publication/Commercial Use:

Fees for copying of photographs and other materials for publication or exhibit

Publication fees are charged for the commercial use of copied photographic materials (photographs, slides, film video, etc.) from the collections in the Kodiak Historical Society Archives. Commercial use is here defined as any publication, exhibit or similar use for which a monetary profit accrues to those persons involved in the effort. Publication fee charges are per image used in a publication, and are in addition to the reproduction fees.

- Photographs $20.00 per image

An Application for Permission & Project Description must be signed and returned before images will be released. Requests for reuse or change must be submitted in writing. All fees are subject to change.
