In-house research is defined as the collection, assembly, or extraction of data or information from Kodiak Historical Society records by the researcher themselves. Researchers requesting copies of archival material for publication will need to fill out an Application for Permission and Project Description form. Researchers requesting research to be performed by KHS archivist, please, fill out a regular Research Request Form. In-House Research Requests should be submitted at least a week in advance and the appointment should be confirmed by either the Archivist or the Director of the Baranov Museum. Only Kodiak Historical Society members will be permitted to conduct research in-house. NOTE: Work with archival documents can only be performed in the direct presence of the archivist.
